

Submission from a business owner in Woolwich

19 August 2006

I would like to inform you of my personal experience at the hands of a supermarket giant, namely Tesco's. I own a small business in Woolwich town centre and am faced with compulsory purchase to make way for a new superstore. This will destroy mine and other local businesses.

Yours sincerely

Robert Chater